Hertford County

I spoke with County Commissioner president Howard Hunter Jr. on July 15, 2013. I spent a few pleasurable moments speaking with this affable board member. Whom I had little knowledge of on the role in which he remonstrates county issues. I was elated to have the opportunity, to question him about his role as the Hertford County president of County Commissioner.

Question One: How long have you served on the board?

Answer: 9 years

Question Two: Will you run for re-election when your current term expires?

Answer: Yes, I plan to run for a higher office

Question Three: What county issues hold the most importance to you?

Answer: Public Health, Education

Question Four: Are there long-term concerns you have about our county?

Answer: Rising of taxes because the more citizens the more taxes will be rose.

Question Five: What role does the Board of Commissioner play in addressing those concerns?

Answer: It's all in how you spend your money plays a big part.

Question six: What are the biggest issues the citizens ask you about?

Answer: Raising taxes

Question Seven: What are some of the responsibilities for county governments that you were not aware of when you ran for office?

Answer: I knew what I was getting into.

Question Eight: What are the hardest decisions you're faced as a county commissioner?

Answer: Expanding fire tax reunion.

In conclusion Mr. Howard Hunter Jr. is very sedulous with the role as county commissioner; I have gain great knowledge from our conversation. This experience I have encountered is priceless.
